

2010 NSCAA NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR HONORED

The National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) announced its 2010 NSCAA/Mondo National Coach of the Year award winners for youth, high school and collegiate competition. The winners were recognized at the annual NSCAA Awards Banquet, held Friday evening, January 14, 2011, at the Hilton Baltimore in conjunction with the 2011 NSCAA Convention.

NATIONAL YOUTH COACH OF THE YEAR - SEAN BUBB

Sean Bubb, Lonestar SC, Austin, Texas Executive Director of Soccer for Lonestar SC overseeing both boys and girls programs. Sean joined Lonestar in 2005 when the club consisted of 900 players. Today Lonestar has 5000 players! As a coach Sean's Lonestar teams have won dozens of state titles, four regional championships and last summer the 91G from Lonestar became the first girls team from South Texas to win a national championship. Sean has been a Region III ODP coach for years and has helped he's put 100's of players into college. Sean holds a UEFA 'A' license.

Congratulations Sean!!